Spiritual Chometz

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The holy Reb Nosson did Bedikas Chometz with a fiery fervor and emotion. The entire time, you were able to see his face changing colors from awe and embarrassment from Hashem. With tears in his eyes, he told his children Reb Shachne and Reb Yitzchak that, "When they check for Chometz in the house, they also need to check the spiritual Chometz in our hearts. Because this is a time to do Teshuva".

Get Out Of Mitzrayim

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The time has come to get out of Mitzrayim. Trust me, everyone has struggles, they all think they can't handle life, but the truth is, who knows what's better for a person than Hashem?

He does everything, and he knows what's best for a person. By the Seder, don't stop thanking Hashem for everything he does for you. "Mikimi Meafar Dul" he took me out of the mud, "Meashpos Yarim Evyon" Where was I? In the garbage, by the Tumah. "Lehoshivi Im Nedivim" Now I am by the Rebbe, "Hahofchi Hatzur" Hashem turned over my heart of stone, "Agam Mayim" to Torah and Tefilah.

Feel Hashem's Presence

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Tonight will be Shevei Shel Pesach, a time that the Yiden went through the Yam Suf and reached the greatest levels. The (Mechilta Deshira 3) writes that even the simple servants saw tremendous greatness, even more than the Neveim. We can also merit to reach such levels, to feel Hashem and live with Emunah. Chazal said in (Sota 30b), The small babies that didn't have understanding, also thanked Hashem. We see from here that even if a person is very far from Hashem, he too can also come on Shevei Shel Pesach to such high levels and start to feel Hashem's presence.

Wash Our Hands

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The Shulchan Aruch in (Orach Chaim 4:19) says that when we get up in the morning we need to wash our hands, and after we use the bathroom we must wash our hands. When we shower, cut our nails, put on and off our shoes, and also when we go to the doctor to take blood or to a cemetery, we must wash our hands. It is written there that if we don't wash our hands, then we will have fear for that day, and we won't know what we are afraid of. If we don't wash our hands after taking a haircut, then the fear will last for three days. Be strict about Netilas Yadaim, and beg Hashem to have a strong Emunah and all your fears will go away.

Little By Little

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Reb Nosson said that when I came to the Rebbe, I heard something new, that "A little is also good". The reason why people don't do things properly is because they want to do it in a complete state. When we want to do a lot, we end up not doing anything at all. Yet, if we would understand the greatness of a little Torah, a little Tzedakah, a little Shmiras Einayim, a little Simcha, then little by little we will get to do a lot.

Asked His Rebbi

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The holy Rebbe says in (Sefer Hamidos Ois Banim 66), Those who hold themselves smaller than their Rebbe, and he asks his Rebbe all his questions, even if his Rebbe embarrasses him, he still asks him all his questions, through this he will merit to have children who will be greater than his Rebbe. Just as Chazal said in (Brochos 4a), that Dovid Hamelech always asked his Rebbe 'Mephiboshes' all his questions, he merited to have a son by the name of 'Kilav' which means shaming, he was so great that Dovid Hamelech's Rebbe Mephiboshes was ashamed of his greatness.
