A Sign Of Love

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

It is written from Tzadikim that specifically now during the days of the Churban, Hashem revealed his love to us. Chazal said in (Yoma 54b), when the Goyim came into the Kodosh Hakedashim and destroyed the Beis Hamikdash, the Keruvim were facing each other. This is a sign of love from Hashem to his children. Whatever situation you find yourself in, you should remember that Hashem loves you. He is with you, by you, and next to you. If we live by this then everything is different. This is Dveikus BaHashem.

Happy With Simplicity

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

In this week's Parsha we find the words "Asher

Banachal". The Trup on the words Asher Banachal is 'Mapach Pashta', what is this coming to indicate? This is the entire teachings of the holy Sefer 'Asher Banachal', Mapach - Turns over, Pashta - Be happy with simplicity! Be happy with your Tefillin, Be happy that you keep Shabbos, Be happy that you wear Tzitzis, Be happy to kiss the Mezuzah, Be happy with Yiddishkeit. A person thinks that he needs to put in extreme effort to be happy, yet when he takes the Sefer 'Asher Banachal', his eyes are illuminated, he will turn around and start being happy with his simplicity in Yiddishkeit.

Little By Little

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

You don't need to think about doing a lot, think about doing a little. Say one Perek of Mishnayos, Say one Blatt of Gemorah, one Perek of Tehillim and be happy with the little amount that you learn. Don't knock yourself down that you would have been able to learn more, lift yourself up with all that you actually do. Praise yourself with the little that you do. Little by little you will accomplish a lot.

We Need or We Want

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

It all depends on the Chinuch that we give to our kids. Children that grow up healthy knowing that everything that we 'need' we buy, and everything that we 'want' just because someone else has it we don't buy, such kids grow up with a true good life. A life for ourselves, and not for any other person. Then, when it comes to celebrating their own Simcha like a Bar Mitzvah or a Chasuna they won't beg their parents to make expensive Simchas just because so and so made it a certain way. They will be happy with the Simcha itself and understand that their parents don't have the proper means etc.

Become a True Baal Teshuva

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Make a Shiur in the holy Sefer Lekutei Moharan. The Rebbe said in (Chayei Moharan 349), "We can become a true Baal Teshuva if we learn Lekutei Moharan". The Rebbe also said, "Whoever will learn his Sefer with truth, will open up all the clogged arteries, and he will become an Ehrlicher Yid. There are Talmidim of Heichal Hakodesh till today who finish the Sefer every month, and Mohorosh praised those who did.

You're Not As Bad As You

Think

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

I beg you dearly, strengthen yourself, don't give up, you are not as bad as you think. First of all you are a Yid, you have a beard and Peyos, you put on Tefillin, you have a Mezuzah by your door, you wear Tzitzis, you eat Kosher, and the main thing is you are full of good will, you want to be good and you believe in Hashem. You must be very happy.
