Accomplish So Much

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Go home and help your wife put the kids to bed, rather than hanging around with your friends and talking about this one and that one. Then, if you have some extra time, go Hafutza, go and distribute the Rebbe's Seforim. A fire is burning, so many people are falling away, so many people are suffering, and we can help them with the Rebbe's advice, and with the Rebbe's Chizuk. It's such a shame that every word we say when we're speaking to our friends about nonsense, in that same time, we can accomplish so much.

Next To The Ladder

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

In this week's Parsha, the Torah shows us a way that even if we are lying on the floor, we fell down to the lowest place, yet we are lying next to a ladder that reaches up to the heavens all the way to Hashem. The Zohar says that 'Sulam' a ladder, is the same numerical value as 'Kol' our voice. Our mouth is our ladder that reaches the heavens. Say, "Hashem help me, I want to be good, trust me, look inside my heart, look at my thoughts, I really want to be good and I want to stop with all my wrongful desires and bad traits, help me.

Wow, Whee, Whaa

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

You bought a new car? What did you buy, a Lincoln? An Escalade? The first day it's Wow, the second day it's Whee, and the third day is Whaa... No one is looking at it anymore, and even if someone is looking at it, the wheels are already dirty and after a few days your hair is already falling onto the floor, and some of the chickpeas that you bought got thrown around the car after you made a shortstop. What now? If you would take the holy Gemora and you will just say a little Gemora, you will feel so good inside. Not just on the outside when you're partying with your friends, but you will become happy from within. You don't need to understand what you are learning, just say the holy words.

Give Me Prosperity

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

What's going to be with Parnosah? There is only one thing to do when you are under pressure with business tension, scream out to Hashem, "Hashem make me happy, give me prosperity, give me an abundance of wealth". If you screamed to Hashem, and you have already beseeched Hashem for help and you are still feeling under pressure, then scream out to Hashem again and again. Go for a little dance, because Simcha is the source of all salvation.

I Was Created A Yid

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The Kedushas Levi had a practice of reciting Birchas Hashachar aloud every day. One morning, as he was saying the Brachos, he skipped the Bracha of Shelo Asani Goy. When his apparent error was pointed out to him, he remarked, "I already said the Bracha! When I awoke this morning, I was so dejected and I could not find anything to cheer myself up. Finally, I said to myself, 'At least I was created a Yid!' I was instantly filled with such joy that I just couldn't contain myself and immediately said the Bracha of Shelo Asani Goy. If this great Tzadik, whom the Rebbe gave the title of "Pe'er Hador", had nothing to cheer himself up with other than the fact that he was born a Jew, we simple people can certainly strengthen ourselves with this fact.

Honoring Hashem Himself

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Mohorosh used to call his father everyday after Davening. You should do the same, and call your parents everyday. If you live in the same city as your parents, you should go visit them everyday, and if you live in a different city then you should visit them from time to time. The Mitzvah of Kibud Av Veim is such a holy Mitzvah that the Chachamim said in (Baba Metziah 32a), "The Mitzvah of Kibud Av Veim is so great, that it's as if we are honoring Hashem himself.
