

THE ROSH YESHIVA SAYS:

Daily Messages from "A Powerful Minute"

A project of the "English Speaking Chaburas"

Heichal Hakodesh Breslev

Parshas Yisro 5784

Vol 1:60

Thursday 15 Shevat 5784

Feel All Squeezed

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Today is Tu Bishvat, the Rosh Hashanah of the trees. It's worthwhile to make a Seudah of fruits with your wife and children. Tell them how much Hashem loves us and how good Hashem is. Keep yourself strong, look at the beautiful fruits, they only grow after the grain gets rotten, only then it can turn out to become a beautiful sweet fruit. When the grain lies comfortably in the barrel, nothing can become of it. The same applies to a person, nothing will become of him if he's comfortable, but when he feels all squeezed, and he doesn't see a way out, where he's buried deep in the ground, then if he strengthens himself and he holds himself strong, then beautiful things will come out.

Today's message has been taken from a letter from the Rosh Yeshiva Wednesday Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled

Friday 16 Shevat 5784

Shown In Black and White

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Pharoh sent the Yiden out of Mitzrayim, but Hashem had a problem, that they can't leave on a straight path. Why?, because in order for them to travel from Mitzrayim to Eretz Yisrael they would need to pass through the Pelishtim, and the Pelishtim were jokesters. Hashem said that if the Yiden would pass through the Pelishtim they will make fun of Moshe Rabeinu and the Yiden will go back to Mitzrayim. The obvious question is, Mitzrayim was in a horrible state and Moshe showed the Yiden that there is no nature, that Hashem runs the world, and now they will be going to Eretz Yisrael, so why would Hashem be worried if they pass through an area of jokesters? This show you what jokesters do. You can be shown in black and white, and be taken out of your problems and be given life, then comes some clown and convinces you its not so and so, you end up wanting to go back into your old problems.

Today's message has been taken from Ah Git Vort Ouf Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled

Sunday 18 Shevat 5784

Open Our Mouth

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Mohorosh constantly spoke to us about the greatness of Hisbodidus. The amazing gift that the Rebbe gave us, that a Yid should speak to Hashem in his mother tongue and this will bring him all good things spiritually and physically. The Rebbe taught us that Hashem is with a person every minute of the day, we just need to open our mouth and speak to Hashem. It doesn't matter where he is or what situation he is in, Hashem is standing next to him and he hears every word and will surely help him.

>>>>

Today's message has been taken from the Special Edition on the Yurtzeit of Mohorosh in the Yiddish Gilyon Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled

Monday 19 Shevat 5784

Open and Close

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

A young man once came to Mohorosh at a time when he was working very hard until very late at night. He said that by the time he comes home, he is so exhausted from his day of work that he can't learn and he doesn't even have the strength to say the words. Mohorosh told him to make sure that every day just open the Gemorah and close it. This man listened with simplicity, every day he opened the Gemorah then closed it and gave it a kiss. However this is not the way it stayed, most of the time he ended up actually learning a few lines, and this allowed him to continuously be connected to the holy Torah.

Today's message has been taken from the Special Edition on the Yurtzeit of Mohorosh in the Yiddish Gilyon Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled

Tuesday 20 Shevat 5784

Food For Our Soul

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

A boy once came to Mohorosh and said that it has been three years that he learns 18 Perakim of Mishnayos every single day! Mohorosh praised him, yet added that he must remember, the day will surely come that he won't finish 18 Perakim, but he should continue on learning whatever he can. This is food for our soul. Everyone knows he must eat, however if he missed out a day, he will continue on just like before. The same applies to the holy Torah.

Today's message has been taken from the Special Edition on the Yurtzeit of Mohorosh in the Yiddish Gilyon Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled

Wednesday 21 Shevat 5784

Be Smart, Not Right!

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Shalom Bayis was one of the main topics by the Rebbe and by Mohorosh. A Yid can not be an Ehrlicher Yid, and not even a normal person, without having Shalom Bayis. Mohorosh spoke about this a lot and wrote about it many times, how we can have a good life with the proper common sense to make sure that there is Shalom Bayis at home. Mohorosh used to say we only need to have simple logic to realize that it's not worth it to always be right. Mohorosh always said "Be smart, not right!". A person must give in and must give his wife attention, and not wait for her to give it to him.

Today's message has been taken from the Special Edition on the Yurtzeit of Mohorosh in the Yiddish Gilyon Parshas Beshalach Taf Shin Pey Daled