Great Regret

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Listen to the Rebbe, follow his advice. The Rebbe said in (Chayei Mohoran 354): "I have great pity on two types of people, on those who did not come close to me, and on those who do know about me but don't listen to me. Because I know that there will come a time when one will lie with his feet to the door, and then he will have great regret why he did not get close to me, and why he did not follow me. Because if he had come close to me and followed me, there wouldn't have been a problem in the world that he would not of been able to handle. However, by then there won't be anything that can be done anymore, it will be too late

Business Is Torah

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

In this weeks Parsha the Torah teaches us the Halachos of dealing with other people honestly, how we need to be careful not to steal, and how to handle it when there is a dispute. The holy Rebbe said in (Lekutei Mohoran 1:280), When a Yid goes to Din Torah, it is a punishment in the Torah, because all business dealings is Torah. When a Yid is in business, he must think about Hashem and the Halachos of the Torah in every aspect of business. He must be very careful not to stray from the holy Torah

In Their Merit

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

You can't imagine the greatness a woman has, by caring for her children and taking care of her home to follow in the ways of Hashem. The world stands on these women, and Hashem took us out of Mitzrayim in honor of these women. The holy Chachamim said in (Yalkut Rus Remez Daled), Moshiach will come only in the merit of the Ehrlicher women of the generation. Chazal also said in (Sota 11), In the merit of the women who put everything on the side when it comes to the will of Hashem, they help their husbands and raise their children, in their merit we will be redeemed.

Today, It's Very Easy

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Today, it's very easy to be Mekadesh Shem Shomayim, because it used to be that we needed to burn ourselves to properly make a Kiddush Hashem. Yet, nowadays someone who conducts himself Ehrlich, is being Mekadesh Shem Shomayim publicly. The holy Rebbe said in (Chayei Mohoran 494), There will be a time when those who will be an Ehrlicher Yid, a simple Yid, will be so exceptional just as the holy Bal Shem Tov.

More Than Me

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

There were once two poor men, whom one them was a Talmid of Reb Nosson, and the other was a Talmid of Reb Nosons opposition. The Chusid of Reb Nosson opposition told his friend who was Reb Nossons Talmid, "You get more than I get from my Rebbe", because when I go to my Rebbe and complain to him that I dont have any money and we calculate how much is missing, he gives me half of what I need, then when I get home I'm still missing the other half. Yet when you go to your Rebbe he gives you such clarity that you realize that you're not missing anything at all, and therefore you have more than me.

Many Challenges, Many Opportunities

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

How can we be guarded in today's days? There are so many challenges today, that we never had before. However, even though there are many challenges today, yet, there are also so many opportunities that we never had before. The Rebbe's advice was meant for our generation. We have terrible challenges today, and in one second someone can fall into the deepest pit, but with advise of the Rebbe we can make it through. The Rebbe said even if someone had done something really bad, if everyday he commits himself to learn or even say if he doesn't understand, a litte Chumish, or Mishnayos, or Gemorah or Tehillim, or Lekutei Mohoran, the Torah will take him out of all his struggles.
