Take Part

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Tonight, on Asara B'Teves is the Yurtzeit of the holy Reb Nosson. When we remind ourselves of Reb Nosson, we must remember to renew ourselves in helping to spread the holy Seforim of the Rebbe to the world. Mohorosh used to strengthen us every year on the Yurtzeit of Reb Nosson that we should occupy ourselves with helping in printing the Seforim, and that everyone should also take part in going to distribute the Seforim.

Turn Around

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We see an amazing thing in this weeks Parsha. The Shevatim were ashamed of Yosef after what they had done to him and now seeing that he is the king of Mitzrayim. Yosef told them not to worry because Hashem made things turn around in order for me to help you. We must look at our struggles, that Hashem is stirring things around, only to see that if we keep strong then in the end we can end up saving the whole world.

Hashem, Hashem, Hashem

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

I was recently walking, trying to speak my heart out to Hashem, but I didn't have any words to say. The entire way I just said one thing, "Hashem, Hashem, Hashem". I was so happy that I could say this one word, just was the Rebbe said in (Lekutei Moharan 2:96), Even if we can only say "Rebono Shel Olam", it's also very good. I walked up and down, until I thought of trying to walk up the hill once more, and then I was already able to have a good conversation. I was able to speak to Hashem and thank him. I am telling you this, because you think that you are the only one that it doesn't happen to, yet you should know that on many days my Hisbodidus is one word over and over again, "Hashem".

Save Yiden

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Take a bag of Seform and Kunterisim of Atzos and Chizuk from the holy Rebbe and go with them to houses to save Yiden. You can't imagine what Hafutza does, and who can be saved by going Hafutza. How many Yiddishe homes are getting destroyed by those who don't have the common sense on how to live with their wives, and with just one Kunteris you can simply save them.

Obey Your Parents

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The main thing that parents need to do when educating their children, is to teach their children that they must obey their parents. This is the foundation of education. This is something that must be done when the children are still very young, at two or three years old, until the children learn to obey their parents. Most parents don't know this. Either they don't think, or they don't have the strength, and they let their children do whatever they want. These kids grow up without any respect and then later when they get older, they become very disrespectful and then it's already too late. It will be too hard for them to better themselves.

A Bear In Monsey

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

I'm going to tell you again and again. This is for men, for boys, and I'm saying it to myself as well. We tried everything to make us happy, we tried this and we tried that, and nothing is making us happy. Instead of hearing the same old news that I heard when I was young that's there is a bear in Monsey, or that Iran or North Korea have an Atom or something with Russia, this show goes on for ten years, twenty years, thirty years, forty years, and meanwhile the years pass, if someone has some sense he will take out a Gemorah and start learning one Daf Gemorah and then another Daf after Daf.
