Everyone Struggles

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Do you think that you are the only one that is going through a rough time? Everyone struggles. The holy Rebbe said in (Lekutei Moharan 2:119), Everyone goes through hardships on this world, even the rich and famous leaders don't have it all on this earth, it's all full of pain and anguish. They are constantly worried, depressed, and sad. There is no way to be saved from this misery, only to run to Hashem, tell Hashem what we are going through, and ask him to have mercy on us.

Is Hashem's Word True or Not?

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Parshas Shelach is a wondrous story of Hashem saying to go into Eretz Yisrael. Why then do we need to send spies to search the land to see if Hashem's word is true? Hashem took us out of Mitzrayim, did you forget where you came from, and what you went through? After all the miracles that we went through, how could we go look into if Hashem's word is true or not? Yet, if we look into ourselves we see that we also need to do some serious Teshuva. Hashem tells us that if we will be good, we will guard our eyes, we'll learn, come to Shul, put on Tefillin, then we will have a good life but we also start to think if it is true or not! We are also the Meraglim, and we need to do Teshuva to know that Hashem does everything only for our good.

Worried About Tomorrow

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Chazal said that if a person has bread to eat today, and he is worried about tomorrow, he is lacking Emunah. Does this mean that we need to stop working and not put any money away? No. We need to make money, and we need to be cautious with our finances. The Rebbe said, we sacrifice so much time from davening and learning to go and make money and then we lose it because a swindler came to rob us with fictitious investments. But to worry about what will be tomorrow is incorrect. We need to rely only on Hashem, thank Hashem and ask Hashem to help support your wife and children.

Rather Suffer a Little,
Than Suffer a Lot

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

There is a phrase from the holy Rebbe, "If we don't want to suffer a little, we will suffer a lot". This phrase is so true and so holy. Because everyone in this world struggles, there is no such thing as not struggling. The only thing is that those who live with Hashem, when they go through something or a certain scenario, they know that it is from Hashem, and it is easier for them to deal with. But, if we run away from the Torah and from Hashem, in the end it will be much worse.

Who Is Strong?

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Shlomo Hamelech said in Mishlei (16:32), "Someone who can hold himself back and not get angry, is better than a strong man. Those who have self control and don't get angry, are stronger than those who can take on a whole city". Chazal said in (Avos 4:1), Who is strong? Those who control themselves over their nature, and not get angry even when someone upsets them. There is no one in this world that does not go through some sort of difficulty, problems, or struggles every day. Every day different episodes occur that never happened before, we always meet new people, and there are always new reasons for us to get angry. Let's beg Hashem that we should have a clear and pure Emunah, to always remember that only Hashem controls everything. This way we will never get angry.

Shake Up Our Bones

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

What's with you? Wake up! We are already in Tamuz. Mohorosh said that Tamuz is the initials of Z'manei T'eshuva M'imashmashin U'baein. The Yomim Noraim are coming up very soon, the time of Teshuva. This shakes up our bones. The year has almost passed, and very soon we will be traveling to the Rebbe in Uman for Rosh Hashanah. We must wake ourselves up, start davening with a Minyan for all three Teffilos, and stop with all disagreements and arguments.
