As If You Have Never Sinned

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

You can't imagine what Torah does to a person. Even a person who is R"L in the lowest of the lowest, if he takes upon himself to learn Torah every day - The Torah will take him out of all his Aveiros, and Hashem will forgive him for his Aveiros. Chazal said in (Yerushalmi Rosh Hashanah 4:8), "When a person takes upon himself to accept the Torah", this means he takes upon himself to learn every day the holy Torah - then Hashem says, that "I will calculate it as if you have never sinned". To learn every day a Perek Mishnayos, this will cleanse you and take away all your blemishes.

Win Over Bad Desires

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The holy Sanzer Ruv said that Korach, Dasan and Aviram were dressed with white Beketches, contrary to what we used to think that they wore modern clothing. How could it be that Moshe Rabbeinu was able to stand up against their prestigious look even though they were really rebelling against him? The holy Rebbe said in (Lekutei Moharan 1:249), "Where does a person get strength in his heart from, and not be afraid of anyone or anything? It only depends on his own heart, and without any fear goes into the middle of the fight". We constantly find ourselves in a fight to serve Hashem. Therefore we need to have a Tzadik who can guide us, as the Rebbe continues to learn the Mishna in (Avos 4), Who is strong? Someone who can win over his bad desires.

Don't Be Afraid

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

I beg you dearly, keep going and hold on. Now you are going through a narrow bridge, and the Rebbe said, "Have no fear", Sourced in (Lekutei Moharan 2:48). The world is like a narrow bridge, and the main thing is to not be afraid. Be happy that you are a Yid. Go to Shul and put on your Talis and Tefillin, and refresh yourself that you are a Yid. You can even start right now to be a Yid, and you can become a great Tzadik.

Remember what the Rebbe said, " The main thing is not to be afraid ".

Doctor Learner

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Set time to learn in the morning and at night. The only way to have life is by having a Shiur in the holy Torah in the morning and at night. Tell your boss that you got a letter from your doctor that you can't work past 5:00, the latest 6:00. If he will ask you the doctor's name, say: "Doctor Learner", Mohorosh also went to the same doctor. You should go home by Five or Six, change your work clothes and put on nice clothing. Tell your wife and children that you have a wedding, you and the Torah are having a wedding. Go to Shul and set time to learn. Be prepared that everyday very very important things will come up that need to be taken care of. Don't get caught up with it, just go hide in Shul with the holy Mishnayos, Gemorah, and Halacha.

You Are Never Alone

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

When The Bal Shem Tov was born, his mother Sarah was very old and died during childbirth.

When The Bal Shem Tov was five year old his father called him and said, "Srulik! I will now be leaving this world, as the way of the world. I beg you, do not be scared of anyone, you are never alone, Hashem is with you, by you, and next to you". This is the way The Bal Shem Tov's father passed away. Since The Bal Shem Tov was a five year old orphan, he always remembered his fathers last words "Don't be scared of anyone, you are never alone, Hashem is with you, by you, and next to you".

It's All Worth It

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

All those who are involved in Hafutzah must be very careful not to get broken by all those who don't take it or refuse it. We must be very happy and appreciate that we have the privilege to go Hafutzah. That fact that you could give even just one person a Sefer, a pamphlet, a CD, of the Holy Rebbe's advice - this alone should make you very happy. Even if you spend so much time and no one takes anything, and they say 'No one needs these Seforim, Gilyonos, etc.' - don't let this discourage you, because if just one person takes one Sefer, then it's all worth it.
