Bless You and Guard You

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

"Yivarechicha Hashem Veyishmirecha", Hashem should bless you and guard you. The Medresh says in (Bamidbar Rabah 11:5) this means, Hashem should Bentch you with money, and guard you from any damage (12:3). The holy Rebbe said in (Lekutei Moharan 1:68), the truth is that every Yid should have money, however there is one bad trait that can take it away and that is "anger". Anger and money come from the same place. When we get angry, we lose our money. This is the meaning of Hashem gives us money but Hashem must guard you from the damages that come from anger. If we are cautious with our anger then we will have a lot of money.

Torah Lishma

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Fortunate are those who know the main reason why we learn Torah is only to do the will of Hashem. We are learning to fulfill the Mitvos of Hashem, and to give Hashem Nachas. Then all our learning is really "Torah Lishma". We are only learning for Hashem and not to get any honor from anyone, or to be called a Ruv, a Lamdan, or a Baal Mekubal. We are simply learning only for Hashem, and there is nothing greater than that.

It Used To Be, Today

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Everyone is complaining that there is no

Panasah today. They're all crying, 'What's going to be?', 'Business is so rough' etc. etc. You need to know, it's an ongoing thing that we always say that times used to be good, we used to be able to make money, we used to be able to make profit, yet in another few years we will be saying the same thing that it used to be, meaning today, were good times, we were doing really well. There is only one piece of advice, beg Hashem in your own natural way, as if you're speaking to your friend. Say "Hashem, give me Parnasah, let me succeed, give me the strength and knowledge to bring Parnasah home for my wife and children. Hashem, I'm doing Teshuva, I'm starting from now to be an Ehrlicher Yid, I'm going to be good, please forgive me and give me wealth.

Utilize The Time

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

When we'll get to the next world, we'll regret not having spoken to Hashem here, "I had so much extra time, whether it was walking in the streets or waiting for someone, I could have utilized the time to say a few words to Hashem". Every small Tefillah that we say to Hashem brings about tremendous success for a person that we can't even imagine. People don't think that it's important if we don't have long conversations with Hashem, however fortunate are those who have the common sense to utilize the time every day to say even a few words to Hashem, it will surely be good for him in this world and the next.

The Way Life Goes

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Mohorosh said that those who don't want to struggle a little, those are the ones who end up suffering a lot. The only way to be able to navigate through life is by having patience. The Rebbe said that when he was a young boy and his mother used to comb his hair, it used to hurt him a lot, yet he said that he understood then that he doesn't need to scream and make a ruckus, because he understood that this is the way life goes, and if we're prepared to go through a little pain then our lives will be very easy.
