Make Our Plans

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We need to start making our plans to come to the Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah. The Rebbe said in (Chayei Moharan 403), "There is nothing greater than to be by me for Rosh Hashanah and no one should be left out. Whoever will come to me for Rosh Hashanah must be happy the whole year". The Rebbe also said that the whole world is dependent on my Rosh Hashanah. We also need to make our plans as to what gifts we are bringing to the Rebbe. How many Mishnayos we will be bringing to the Rebbe and how many Lekutei Moharan we will be finishing.

A Yiddishe Neshama

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

When the spies returned from Eretz Yisrael, they said, "there we saw the fallen ones." Rashi explains that "the fallen ones" were the children of those Malachim. When the Meraglim saw these fallen ones and understood who they were, they concluded that if angels could not overcome the spiritual dangers of the physical world, then surely the Jewish People - mere humans - wouldn't be able to maintain their holiness in a world of Gashmiyus, either. However, they had underestimated the power of a Yiddishe neshama. A person can endure on this world; man is far stronger and far greater than any angel. And if he does make a mistake and sins, he can always do Teshuva and Hashem will forgive him. The Meraglim's mistakes had drastic repercussions which we still feel the effects of today. We must be sure not to repeat those mistakes! Let us open our eyes to Hashem's constant Hashgacha and to our own abilities, and with that, we will Be'ezras Hashem be Zoche to return to Eretz Yisrael for good.

Thank You Hashem

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The time to have a conversation with your children is before the missiles start flying. Once they are in flight, it's a little too late.... The way to instill Emunah in yourself and your family is by constantly speaking about Hashem. When all is going smoothly and life is blessedly routine, take the time and effort to inculcate Emunah in your children so that they will be prepared to endure the challenges they will encounter later. The Rebbe says (Likutei Mohoran 2:44) that Emunah is contingent upon a person's speech; one must speak words of Emunah constantly in order to absorb it. Talk about Hashem and include Him in every conversation say "Baruch Hashem," "Be'ezras Hashem," "Thank You Hashem," every opportunity. Slowly but surely, it will affect your mindset and that of your wife and children, and all anxiety and fears will gradually fade.

Always A Way Out

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

When a person falls into a problem, he must remember that if there was a way into the problem, there is a way out of the problem. We must never think that we're lost and it's the end of the world, there is always a way out. We must know that this is the way life goes. Things don't go as smoothly as we wish. The smartest thing to do in life is to remember that Hashem runs the world. All difficulties and challenges are part of Hashems master plan to see how we will handle things, and with a true will, we will be able to overcome any challenge.

My Home Is Pure

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Fortunate are those who don't read any News reports, and don't bring any sort of News pamphlets into their home. If people would know how nice and sweet life is without knowing the News, how calm and relaxing life is without all these things, nobody would ever look at it. The News brings about fear and they work in a way that they pull the reader in by ways of panic and fear, and this causes us not to live life. My home is pure of these things, no Newspapers, Magazines, not Frum ones and not Chassidishe ones, nothing, our home is pure.

Not A Good Sign

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Whoever speaks against the Seder Derech Halimud from the Rebbe (Sourced in Sichas Haran 76) of saying the words of Torah, is not a good sign. An Ehrlicher Yid would never disregard saying words of Torah. Run away from those who convince you not to learn the Seder Derech Halimud, don't argue with anyone. Be smart and not foolish, because when we will be lying with our feet towards the door we will then see the greatness of those who listened with simplicity and learned the holy Torah and listened to the holy Rebbe
