What's With Me?

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Go do Hisbodidus, and scream to Hashem: "Hashem help me, have mercy on me, I don't know what happened to me, I lost my feeling for the Rebbe, I have birds flying around in my head, I want to drop the Rebbe, Hashem what's with me?, I forgot about all my sins, I feel like I'm smarter, as if I know and understand everything already, I'm asking, Why are we speaking like this?, and Why do we need to do this and this?, Hashem what has happened to me?"

This Small Coin

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

This week we have a big Shabbos, Shabbos Parshas Shekalim, and Shabbos Mevorchim Adar Beis. The holy Tzadik Reb Pinchas Koritzer said that he can't wait until the four Parshios would come so he can see Hashem. These days are such a tremendous time for us to renew ourselves, and merit to reach great levels to see Hashem. Parshas Shekalim states that everyone needs to bring a half Shekel. Chazal said that Moshe Rabbeinu didn't understand the whole concept of bringing a half Shekel. What is so difficult to understand to bring a half Shekel? This was after the sin of the Golden Calf, and Klal Yisrael had fallen in the worst Aveiros and therefore Moshe couldn't understand how with this small coin, your soul would be forgiven? Hashem showed Moshe from under his holy throne, with this actual coin, when a Yid gives even a small coin to Tzedaka, or he does even the smallest thing, this goes straight up to the Keisei Hakavod.

The Whole World Is Crazy

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We are so fortunate to have the Rebbe, who shows us the right path to go on. Even someone without common sense, if he listens to the Rebbe and adheres to his direction, he will succeed and have a good life. The holy Reb Nosson said, "The whole world is crazy, and so am I, yet I have a Rebbe who I listen to. He also said that, "I am compared to a child who sits on an adult's shoulders", meaning how small a person is and how foolish one is, if he takes the Rebbe and listens to him, he will have a good life.

Borrow Some Happiness

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

There was once a Breslever Chusid by the name of Reb Ahron Kiblitchev. This Reb Ahron was a very happy person, he always walked around with a smile, even though he was extremely poor. In his home, he didn't even have anything to put in his mouth. His wife used to always ask him, "Ahron, why are you so happy, we don't have anything?". He would always respond, "I believe that it will still get better and it will be good, Nu, so I am borrowing some happiness from then for now. You're right that now we really don't have anything, but things will change and then we'll have something to be happy about.

Foolish Theories

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Hashem created the world in a way that we should eat Fish and Meat by killing the animal. This is not 'Tzar Balei Chaim', the Torah knows what it means 'hurting an animal'. Run away from all these foolish theories of vegetarians, which will only make you crazy and turn your life upside down. You will end up not gaining anything from them. You should rather strengthen your Emunah. Review day and night that there is nothing besides Hashem. Everything that we see is only a covering that Hashem covered. Hashem is in everything, Domem, Tzomeach, Chai, Medaber, it's all a covering of Hashem. Through this understanding, you will have a good life.

Only One Option

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

There was a Breslever Chusid by the name of Moshe. This Moshe Breslever was once on a ship where a group of Goyim were bothering him. Realizing that he had nowhere to run to on a ship, he only had one option. He thought of going to learn Lekutei Mohoran. As soon as he started to learn the holy Sefer Lekutei Mohoran, the Goyim slowly started to walk away and leave him alone. When he was asked why he thought to do this? He answered, I heard from Reb Nosson that when we learn Lekutei Mohoran, the worms won't come to bother you in the grave. Therefore, I thought that it is also a way to get rid of all problems in this world as well, and it worked! Dear children, let's learn the holy Rebbes Seforim, and we will be guarded from all bad.
