Thursday 13 Iyar 5783

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Fresh challenges, and I can't guard my eyes. Tell it to Hashem! Discuss it with Hashem! Have a conversation with Hashem! "Hashem, I really really want to be good! Hashem, I can't overpower my Yetzer Horah, the Yetzer Horah is burning in me. However far I am, that's how bad I am." Whatever challenges that I go through, I can speak to Hashem in my own language. "Hashem it's so hard for me, but look at my heart! I want to be a good Yid, I want to be refined!" This is something everyone can do!

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

In this week's Parsha it says, Hashem told Moshe, tell the Kohanim and tell them all the Halachos of a Kohen not to become impure. Rashi right away asks, why does it say two times tell the Kohanim and tell them, what is the reason to say "Tell and Tell"? Rashi says it means, "the elders should tell the youngsters". There are many Torahs on this yet the best Torah is the simplest. We must speak to children, we must educate our children. Chinuch is one of the most difficult Avodos to do, children who are healthy are very energetic, and there are those who unfortunately smack the children, but the Rebbe taught us that we can not smack children. The way to teach them is by speaking to them, even if it is something that has been said already, we need to tell it to them again and again and again.

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The holy Chachamim relate in (Shir Hashirim Rabah 1:31), a couple once came to Reb Shimon Bar Yochai and said that they want to divorce because they have been married for 10 years without any children. Reb Shimon told them to make a big meal before divorcing. At the meal when the husband was getting a little drunk, he told his wife that after the meal she should take her most valuable possession home with her. The husband continued drinking until he fell asleep on the floor. The wife then said to put him on a bed and bring him to my fathers house. When he woke up he understood what happened. She said to him, you are my most valuable possession. Reb Shimon Bar Yochai told them that if this is the love you have for each other, you will have a child. A year later their child was born. We don't need to wait until Lag Baomer to honor each other, we can do it right away.

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

For all those who will going to be by Reb Shimon Bar Yochai in Meron, they should definitely come. By Reb Shimon Bar Yochai we receive Yeshuos. Tzadikim explain the Chazal in (Brochos 9a) "It is worth it to rely on Reb Shimon at a time of stress", meaning to say that when we are pressed, when we are under pressure we can rely on Reb Shimon Bar Yochai. We don't have to fight or push to get to the Tzion. Mohorosh said that the entire mountain of Meron is a place to receive Yeshuos. We have the gift of Tefillah and Hisbodidus, wherever we stand we can speak to Hashem.

Tuesday 18 Iyar 5783

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Lag Baomer is a very big day. It is a day of Yeshuos for Klal Yisrael. For hundreds of years Jews have been coming to Meron for Lag Baomer to rejoice in the Hilullah of Reb Shimon Bar Yochai. Till today Jews have been helped by Reb Shimon Bar Yochai. Tzadikim said that on Lag Bomer in Meron by Reb Shimon Bar Yochai there are two aspects, inside the Marah you feel like its Yom Kippur, and in the courtyard you feel like its Simchas Torah.

Wednesday 19 Iyar 5783

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

What can we learn from Lag Baomer? The holy Tanna Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai needed to run away after receiving death threats for speaking against the government. Reb Shimon Bar Yochai went to hide himself in the Beis Medresh. This is what we can take from Lag Baomer. If a person has difficult times and difficult days, he is getting destroyed with everything he has, go and hide in the Beis Medresh. Take the holy Torah, the Torah will give you the power to fight with the Yetzer Horah. A person by himself can't fight with the Yetzer Horah. The Torah is the weapon to fight against the Yetzer Horah.
