Bring A Gift

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We are traveling now to the Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah. Mohorosh used to say that when someone is a guest, he brings some sort of a gift. He brings some nuts and chocolate or something for the kids etc., this is the general practice that we don't come empty handed. Mohorosh said that when we come to the holy Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah, everyone needs to bring a gift to the Rebbe. We need to come to the Rebbe with our Siyumim on any Sefer that we have completed.

Free Choice

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

The Parsha opens up speaking about going to war. Reb Nosson brings down in (Lekutei Moharan 2:110), that someone asked the Rebbe: "How does free choice work?". The Rebbe replied, It's very simple. If you want, you will do, and if you don't want, then you won't do. Reb Nosson writes, this is a very important thing to know and remember. There are some people who are so used to their bad ways, that they think to themselves that they don't have any control over it anymore, and therefore they can't hold themselves back. However, this is not true, because a person always has a choice, if he wants, he will do, and if he doesn't want, then he won't do.

A Smart Person

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

A smart person doesn't read news sites, blogs or the like. This is made for foolish people. A smart person understands that the news goes on and on, it runs 24 hours a day. They have to put together news, therefore they twist our minds with nonsense. Every year the news goes on and on the same exact way, there is nothing to read and there is nothing to hear. We are getting fooled, and our minds are corrupted into following their own interests.

Difficult Bitter Obstacles

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Believe me, everyone goes through difficult bitter obstacles to come to the Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah. However, it's worth it, it's all worth it to be able to merit to receive our Tikkun from the holy Rebbe. Be very cautious with your Shalom Bayis. Be careful with how you speak at home the whole year. Naturally, when we speak nicely and softly, with honor and awe, then your wife will let you travel to the Rebbe, and she will even prepare for you a package and she will send you wholeheartedly. Dear loving brother, I miss you terribly, I hope to see you in Uman. I beg Hashem that you will strengthen yourself to connect to the Rebbe, through learning the holy Seforim and to do his advice. Mainly through Tefillah and Hisbodidus, to take a few minutes a day to speak to Hashem in a quiet corner in your own language.

Yes Eating, No Eating

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Someone once told the Rebbe that it is very hard for him to come for Rosh Hashanah, because he doesn't have anywhere to eat and he doesn't have a proper place to sleep. Then someone else said to the Rebbe that he can't Daven properly when he comes to Uman for Rosh Hashanah. The Rebbe then said with this exact term: Yes eating, No eating. Yes sleeping, No sleeping. Yes Davening, No Davening. The main thing is that we should be by me for Rosh Hashanah.

Uman Rosh Hashanah

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We are already preparing for our trip to the holy Rebbe in Uman. I would like to write to you a few important details regarding the trip. Firstly, beg Hashem that everything should run smoothly. We should arrive safely with our luggage. We must Daven a lot, because without Tefilla we are in great danger. Secondly, whoever is traveling to Uman for Rosh Hashanah must be very happy. As the Rebbe said in (Chayei Moharan 403), "Those who come to him for Rosh Hashanah, must be happy for the entire year". Thirdly, don't get carried away with all the surroundings, the main thing is to come to Uman. Where you will Daven and where you will stay is not the main part. The main thing is to come to Uman, to be in Uman for Rosh Hashanah.
