Tehei Shnas 'Daf'

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We are standing now, right before Erev Rosh Hashanah. We are at the end of the year. Let's accept upon ourselves to learn everyday the Blatt Gemorah. The Rebbe gave us a way to learn even if we don't understand and we forget everything, we should say the words of the Gemorah. We can not listen to any jokesters that speak about learning, or about Breslev. This year, Taf Shin Pey Daled should be the year of Tehei Shnas 'Daf'. We need to come to Uman just because the Rebbe said that we need to come, and he can help everyone who comes to him for Rosh Hashanah. Hashem should help us utilize our time here in Uman to learn our Shiurim, go to the Tzion to say Tikun Haklali and give a penny to Tzedaka.

A Way To Live

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

We are so fortunate that we have a Rebbe who gives us every aspect of our life. When someone finds a person who helps him in business, he helps him, yet afterwards he still feels lost. We found the Rebbe who gives us a way how to conduct ourselves in Shul, a way to live with your wife, a way to speak to your parents, and in laws, he gives you a way to live with yourself, a way to deal with the Yetzer Horah, it's just amazing. We need to dance how fortunate we are that we have connected ourselves to the Rebbe. Hashem should help us have a Git Gebentchter Yur, a nice sweet year.

Must Be Very Happy

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Thank you Hashem that we had the merit to have been by the holy Rebbe for another year on Rosh Hashanah, it's such a great Simcha! The Rebbe said in (Chayei Moharan 403), that "Those who were by me for Rosh Hashanah must be very happy for the entire year. Mohorosh had written letters not only right after Rosh Hashanah but in the middle of Adar as well that, " You must be happy that you were in Uman for Rosh Hashanah".

Tefillah and Hisbodidus

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

One of the main things that we received from the Rebbe is 'Tefilah and Hisbodidus'. This is what it means to be a 'Breslever Chusid', someone who speaks to Hashem. This is the main thing the Rebbe teaches us. Therefore, now that we have come to the holy Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah we need to take these lessons with us for the entire year. To ask Hashem for every single thing that we need.

Refreshed Energy

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Thank you Hashem that we have come back from being by the holy Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah. We came back with refreshed energy to serve Hashem, and to encourage other Yiden with the Rebbe's advice. Strengthen yourself with going to Shul and Davening with a Minyan. Learn everyday a little Chumish, Mishnayos, Gemorah and some of the Rebbe's Seforim. Remember, every word that we say to Hashem, we take it along with us forever.

Find The Good

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Praise Hashem that we had the merit to be by the Rebbe for Rosh Hashanah. Also, for those who didn't make it, yet the whole Yom Tov they missed being by the Rebbe, they also were by the Rebbe. Now we must prepare ourselves for the Yom Hakodesh, we need to make a Cheshbon Hanefesh, to take out all the hatred from our hearts, to ask forgiveness from everyone, to find the good in everyone and love everyone. How do we take the bad out of us? Through Tefillah and Hisbodidus. To beg Hashem, "Hashem I want to purify myself, I want to take out all the bad been in me, I want to love everyone and not hurt anyone"

Honor Your Wife

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Be cautious at home, that there should not be any arguments. Honor your wife, be careful with her honor. Take this very seriously, because all problems that a person has, is only because he is careless about his wife and hurts her. It's not enough to hear the Rebbe's advice yesterday, yet everyday we need to get new Chizuk. Chazal said in (Kedushin 30b), "Everyday the Yetzer Horah comes to destroy a person and throw him down into Aveiros, and without Hashem's help, he would not be able to overcome these difficult tests".

Hashem Cleanses Us

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Yom Kippur is the holiest day of the year. A day where Hashem cleanses us. If we fast on Yom Kippur and we believe that we are atoned for our sins, then we get washed out from head to toe. We can even see on the faces of simple people that they are shining, we see the cleanliness of Klal Yisrael. Therefore, we can not be mistaken that the day is a bitter day, it's a happy and holy day. People ask why do we need to ask for forgiveness when we know that we will continue in our bad ways? The answer is that we clean our homes even though it will get messy again, and we take showers even though we will get dirty again. Hashem gave us one day a year, where he forgives us for everything that we have done wrong.

A Wandering Life

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

A Yungerman asked me, what can I do so that my young firstborn son should stay Ehrlich? Lets look at what the Rebbe writes in Sefer Hamidos. The Rebbe said that if you live in an area that has a Shul and you don't go in to daven there, then your children will have a life of exile, a wandering life, they will become friends with not good friends. This is the way to guard our children, I will go to Shul to Daven. We must beg Hashem everyday, that I want to go to Shul to Daven.

Going To Be Good

The Rosh Yeshiva Says:

Mohorosh always told us, that Hashem loves the Yiden and he waits for us to come back to him, we should do Teshuva, we should think to ourselves even for one second that we are going to be good. Definitely, if we can speak out words to Hashem, "Hashem, I want to be good, I want to do good, help me, bring me closer to you, bring me to you". How Chashuv this is, and how much Hashem waits to hear these words.
